How to Make a Claim with your Insurer

Reporting a claim

Please find below your insurers contact details you will need in the event of a claim, including bank holidays or out of hours.

Supporting your claim

- Photographs:

Your insurer will always ask for photographs as this is the easiest way for them to understand the extent of the damage.

- Crime Reference Number:

If the claim is a result of theft, malicious damage or any other crime, you will need to contact the police first. The police will issue you with a crime reference number. You will need this number before you can proceed with a claim on your insurance.

- Estimates:

Your insurer can organise suppliers to carry out repairs and works where necessary, or if you prefer, you can ask a local contractor to provide an estimate. Wherever possible, we try to only ask for one estimate for the repair works. It is vital that any estimate contains as much information as possible about the works being done; remember to include the measurements of the rooms affected.

Settling your claim

Once your insurer has agreed an estimate, they can settle the claim. Your insurer can (with your consent) send you a cheque, made payable to your contractor. This way, you can hold on to the money until they have completed the works to your satisfaction. If you are using one of your insurers suppliers, then they will deal with the invoices directly.

There is an excess applicable to most claims. Whether you use a contractor of your own choice or use one of your insurer's suppliers, we will deduct the excess from the first payment we issue. It is your responsibility to make arrangements for payment of the excess to the contractor.

Your insurer will stay in touch with you throughout the claim, ensuring that it is reviewed regularly and concluded as soon as possible.

For any other claims, please visit page 7 for useful numbers.

Additional Products

At Residentsline, we want to make sure you and your property are protected no matter what. That's why we offer a range of additional products along side our "All Risks" Flats Insurance policy. From Lift Inspections and Machinery Breakdown to Terrorism cover and Legal Expenses we can help with it all, request a quote today.

Legal Expenses

Legal Expenses Insurance can provide professional legal and financial support for a wide range of legal disputes. You can also access free legal documentation and useful law guides and obtain legal advice from a qualified specialist. Often, Resident's Management Companies do not have the funds to defend, prosecute or even enter into a legal dispute. With Legal Expenses cover in place you can be prepared in case the worst happens.

Management Liability Insurance

Management Liability Insurance is an insurance policy which includes Directors and Officers Liability Insurance and Corporate Legal Liability Insurance in one policy.

Directors and Officers Liability Insurance provides protection for your Directors and Officers and Corporate Legal Liability Insurance protects your Company against the financial consequences of potential claims made against them. Premiums start from only £95.

Terrorism Insurance

Terrorism Insurance is not mandatory for every block of flats. However, it all comes down to your lease and good sense. When deciding whether to take out a Terrorism Insurance policy, you should always check your lease to see whether it is a requirement and with the flat owners as it may be a requirement of their mortgage conditions.

Additional Products

Home Emergency Insurance

At Residentsline, we understand that finding a reputable contractor at short notice can be expensive and time consuming. So, if you have an unexpected home emergency, such as a burst pipe or boiler breakdown, you'll want to put things right as quickly as possible to protect your property from any further damage. Taking out our Home Emergency policy will provide you with protection.

Lift Inspection & Insurance

Do you have a lift at your block? Did you know that it is your legal duty as a director to ensure that all passenger lifts are safe to use and for inspections to be carried out every 6 months. Residentsline provides a range of Lift Inspection and Lift Insurance services, at competitive prices.

Cyber Liability Insurance

Every organisation is at risk of being a potential victim, your email is where you keep your most personal and financial information. If a cyber-criminal accesses your email, they could: access your other online accounts, personal or business information and can use this to scam you or people you know.
